Hi Rudi

Please do not take any action until you have read the 4 mails I sent with further evidence from FNB legal which combined with the early June exchange with Bantjies now provides conclusive proof of Perjury with Prior Knowledge.

I cannot overstate the importance of my specific instruction from the beginning to rescind the interdict for perjury and fraud:
I repeat for clarity - This is NOT a civil dispute - It is criminal fraud.
Please review the evidence I sent and confirm you understand its implications before taking any action.

The interdict is void ab initio along with everything that flows from it.
We now have evidence suggesting Peter, Rynette & Bantjies may have used "debt" to embezzle funds through Villa Via.
Each additional "urgent order" is an attempt to silence Jacqui and prevent her from exposing their premeditated crimes.
Please treat this with the seriousness it requires as ignoring the evidence of criminal fraud and perjury places Jacqui in extreme danger.

In this context the previous court application is effectively attempted kidnapping and this contempt order seeks to use the court for wrongful imprisonment. Do NOT treat this as a civil dispute. The evidence is clear and Peter is now abusing the court system to wield a fraudulent void order as a weapon to subject his own wife to malicious torture.

We must not allow ourselves to be passively complicit by ignoring the fraud. There is no good faith at this point, just an endless barrage of unprovoked attacks. Consider also that Rynette is the one communicating with Keegan and not Peter, so there is no guarantee he is even aware of what is being said. Their court filings increasingly exhibit paranoid psychopathy and appear to be escalating. All matters related to said interdict from this point forward must be reported to law enforcement as part of a criminal investigation.

The 18th June 2025 when FNB legal sent the Sole mandate notice happens to be the exact same day Rynette commissioned the fraudulent set of accounts for RegimA SA. I will be adding this to the list shortly so most of the actual crimes can be pinned to a single day.. Just 1 week after I reported the fraud to Bantjies and requested an urgent audit and he "went away for 2 weeks".

At this point the SARS investigation will start soon so it is very important that nobody appears to sweep criminal activity under the rug as they will likely assess if all parties reported relevant events timeously and accurately.

On a side note, any response to this order should be an objection by one or more of the corporate entities. Jacqui and I are still directors of those companies whether or not any interdict existed (which it does not since it is void ab initio). But the order relates to stock and he targets Jacqui in her personal capacity which is fundamentally inappropriate.

As director of RegimA Worldwide & Strategic Logistics - Both Corporate Entities object based on the Applicants abuse of the legal process and attempted use of a fraudulent void order that could cause damages to the corporate entities. The corporate entities thus file a motion to have the fraud, perjury and tax crimes referred to the relevant NPA, SARS, & Commercial Crime investigation units for forensic audit of all affected entities. That's the general idea of what actually needs to be done.

Companies must bear the costs of company related disputes without exception. Extracting funds from Jacqui in her personal capacity for what are clearly company-related disputes is blatant extortion on the basis of perjury and criminal fraud. We cannot allow the Applicant to use the court as a weapon to inflict blunt force trauma whenever he has the urge. Such abusive actions need to bear a cost to the abuser as a disincentive.

Warm Regards
Dan

Hi Danny,

See attached contempt application served. The conduct complained about was the reluctance to hand over stock 2 weeks ago.

We will deal with it accordingly.

Please give your mom a heads up that the sheriff will also be serving personally. She can accept it.

Kind Regards,
Rudi Pottas
