FOUNDING AFFIDAVIT

I, the undersigned,

PETER ANDREW FAUCITT,

do hereby make oath, and say:

1.

1.1 I am a major businessman, with Identity Number 520430 5708 18 5.

1.2 I am resident at 30 Norman Road, Bedfordview, Johannesburg.

1.3 The facts herein contained fall within my personal knowledge, unless otherwise stated or as may otherwise appear from the context in which they are stated and are, to the best of my knowledge, both true and correct.

1.4 I have been involved personally, and continuously with the subject-matter of this application.

1.5 I am accordingly able to confirm, as I hereby do, that the contents of this affidavit fall within my personal knowledge, unless otherwise stated or as may otherwise appear from the context in which they are stated and are, to the best of my knowledge, both true and correct.

1.6 Any submissions of a legal nature are made on the advice of my legal representatives, which advice I have accepted as being true and correct, and upon which I act accordingly.

1.7 The contents of the documents to which reference is made herein must be read, with respect, as if specifically incorporated, and repeated herein.

2.1 The respondent is JACQUELINE FAUCITT, a major businesswoman with Identity Number 570607 0898 18 1, who is resident at 20 River Road, Morning Hill, Bedfordview, Johannesburg.

2.2 I do not seek any relief against the other respondents (in the main application), save for costs, if they should oppose this application.

AMF

2.3 The cited respondent is the only party that has a legal interest in this application.

2.4 The respondent is represented, and this application shall, accordingly, be served also on her attorneys of record.

2.5 I am aware that an application for contempt should be served personally on the respondent therein. In the present instance, the respondent has done her best to evade personal service, and I have no doubt that she will do so again. If it proves impossible to serve this application on the respondent, I shall be compelled to ask for an order of substituted service (by way of service of this application on her attorney of record, Pottas Attorneys, so that effect can be given to this application).

This Honourable Court has, with respect, the necessary jurisdiction to adjudicate this application.

AD FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4.1.1 In order not to render this application unnecessarily prolix, I refer to the prior documents filed of record, along with the first contempt of Court application I caused to be lodged against the respondent herein, dated 04 February 2026, which I am advised is filed on Caselines at 'pocket' 018.

4.1.2 This application, effectively, seeks to supplement the aforesaid application (the first contempt application), and to have same heard on an urgent basis.

4.2.1 As of date hereof, no answering affidavit has been filed by the respondent to the first contempt of Court application.

4.2.2 The respondent's continuously contemptuous conduct is set out in my previous affidavits in detail. I refer accordingly, with respect, to the contents of my previous affidavits as if specifically repeated herein; restating my previous averments will amount to an unnecessary repetition thereof.

5.

AD THE PRESENT APPLICATION

5.1 The respondent is well aware of the order granted by this Honourable Court on 19 August 2025.

5.2 The respondent is further well aware of the pending contempt of court application (not that it has at all deterred her).

6.1 On or about 04 February 2026, we (our business) attempted to perform a stock take by our employee, Oliver Mphande (who also goes by 'Arthur'), who manages our storage and stock, given that the respondent refuses to allow me entry to the stock, which is stored at our former common home at 20 River Road, Morning Hill, Bedfordview, Johannesburg.

6.2 I pause to mention that I moved out of our common home on 26 January 2026; the respondent, who is my wife, has become so erratic, unstable, and hostile that I can no longer endure living with her in the same home.

6.3 As a result, not all stock could be accounted for, and we were unable to ensure that we will be able to fulfil our orders.

6.4 Annexed hereto marked "PF18" is the stock sheet in question, same having been provided to Oliver on 16 January 2026 already.

6.5 Upon its return, and given that he is also not allowed into the stock-room without the respondent present (at her behest), he could only partially confirm the stock therein.

6.6 The items listed in the aforesaid, which have asterisks thereby, could not be confirmed.

6.7 The prejudice to our entities is clear.

7.

7.1 The respondent's conduct is, with respect, contrary to her own under-takings, and the order issued by this Honourable Court on 19 August 2025.

7.2 It is contemptuous ex facie the order.

8.

8.1 As is outlined in the first contempt of Court application the respondent, inter alia, now attends the office on a near daily basis, does nothing specific other than sitting at the coffee shop at the office with her 'bodyguard', questioning staff members at random, and making them nervous, to say the least.

8.2 Save for as above, she also randomly comments to staff that she is 'here for her money' whilst at the office.

8.3 On 23 and 24 February 2026, the respondent attended training held at the office.

8.4 Notably, her 'bodyguard' attended the training session with her.

9.1 Cherie Smith, one of our representatives, employed as a 'rep' or consultant for the Pretoria area, was presenting the training session, and the respondent's attendance was not necessitated whatsoever, more so in the intimidatory manner of such attendance, to the clear prejudice of the entities, with her bodyguard in tow.

9.2 Ms Farrar (another of our employees), who also attended the training at our offices, left immediately due to the tension created by the respondent, and went downstairs. Her confirmatory affidavit is annexed hereto marked as "PF19".

9.3 Ms Farrar usually attends training to assist Gayane where necessary.

9.4 On this occasion, Ms Farrar was instructed to continue her attendance due to the respondent's unfounded conduct.

10.

10.1 Gayane Williams, also one of our employees, came downstairs shortly thereafter in a panic due to the respondent having, in front of the entire class for the training session, attacking her verbally, telling her inter alia to leave the training, and advised her that she was 'not needed'. Her confirmatory affidavit is annexed hereto marked as "PF20".

10.2 Gayane attends most of the training sessions, as she generally manages the slides/on-screen presentations, and is an essential part thereof.

10.3 The respondent's conduct is clearly, and egregiously so, contemptuous, being clearly contrary to the order of this Honourable Court that she is interdicted from dealing with the business (and the administration thereof) of the third to sixth respondents in the main application, and their employees, partners, and clientele in any manner in which any may sustain any prejudice (at paragraph 2.5 thereof, Caselines page 0–4).

10.4 Ms Farrar and Gayane informed me immediately thereafter of what had transpired, and I instructed Ms Farrar to re-attend the training session in order to monitor the respondent's conduct.

10.5 I did not ask Gayane to attend further, as that would be contrary to the respondent's instructions to her, and would likely only lead to further escalation, to the further prejudice of the entities.

10.6 Upon Ms Farrar's re-attendance, the respondent, in front of everyone in the training session, scolded her, advised her she was not needed at training, and instructed her to leave.

10.7 Ms Farrar objected, as she was in attendance upon my instruction.

10.8 In raising her voice and arguing with Ms Farrar, the respondent's body-guard asked her to keep quiet, and to sit down.

10.9 The bodyguard is clearly, accordingly, some or other 'risk Management' appointment.

10.10 He was not discouraged by the respondent from challenging with Ms Farrar. Needless to say, it was not his place to do so, and his presence and conduct (encouraged by the respondent) amounts, with respect, to a further contravention of the aforesaid order of this Honourable Court.

10.11 There is no need whatsoever for the respondent to have a bodyguard, who she (clearly with respect) employs for the sole purposes of creating an 'atmosphere', and intimidating our staff.

11.

11.1 The respondent then sat close to the presenter of the training, and interrupted her throughout her presentation. Clearly, with respect, she went out of her way to be obstructive, in defiance of the aforesaid order.

11.2 Over the course of the two days, the respondent made various untrue and disruptive statements, during her interruptions of course, including:

11.2.1 That someone was attempting to steal her company;

11.2.2 That someone was attempting to steal her 'formulations';

11.2.3 That her passwords were changed;

11.2.4 That she was excluded;

11.2.5 That the RegimA website is fraudulent, and that only 'her website' is authentic;

11.2.6 That the official RegimA website has 'Photoshopped' images displayed on it.

11.3 As if the aforesaid was not enough, the respondent also warned the attendees that if the certificates they receive for attendance were not signed by her personally on the front (and the back thereof), their certificates would be fraudulent.

11.4 The respondent's conduct was reported to me by Gayane, and Ms Farrar, and other persons who attended the training.

12.

12.1 The respondent's conduct is clearly, with respect, prejudicial to our entities, in contravention of the order of this Honourable Court, and is calculated by her to be as prejudicial as possible.

12.2 Gayane, in the bathroom, overheard numerous attendees mocking our establishment due to the conduct, and laughing at the issues raised.

12.3 Our entities are, with respect, being damaged irreparably by the respondent.

12.4 Our business is subject to significant competition, and when we lose our reputation — as we undoubtedly will if the respondent is not stopped from continuing her clearly deliberate attacks thereon —, we will lose our business, to the immense and irreparable prejudice of myself, the respondent, our son, and our employees.

AD SUPPLEMENTATION

13.1 The aforesaid information (and more pertinently, the respondent's current conduct set out in the paragraphs below) was not at hand when the first contempt of Court application was launched.

13.2 I accordingly seek leave to supplement same in terms hereof.

13.3 Respectfully, a further contempt application would likely lead to opposition on the basis of lis pendens, and would cause unnecessary prolixity, let alone that this Honourable Court would be called upon to make such a determination on two occasions.

13.4 I turn to the question of service of the first contempt of Court application.

13.5 Same was served on the respondent's attorneys of record.

13.6 The sheriff was also instructed to attend to personal service, as is generally required.

13.7 I attach hereto the relevant return of service on the respondent, as annexure "PF21".

13.8 I further attach hereto, as annexure "PF22" my attorney's letter addressing same, and the respondent's reply thereto (through her attorney) as "PF23".

13.9 Respectfully, it is clear that the respondent has no regard whatsoever for the Rules of this Honourable Court, and its representatives (being the Sheriff), through misleading same, and refusing service, despite clearly being well-aware of the documentation in question, and the sheriff's attendance at our former common home — which, as aforesaid, I have vacated at present for the sake of my sanity, and to prevent the respondent from raising further unfounded allegations as against me.

PFF

AD* URGENCY

14.1 I have, in the interim, instituted divorce proceedings against the respondent — her behaviour has made the continuation of our marriage relationship impossible.

14.2 I attach hereto a copy of the summons as annexure "PF24".

14.3 Resultant of the aforesaid service issues, my attorneys, having discussed such service issues with the respondent's attorneys, and accordingly directed correspondence as pertains to service of the summons to the respondent's attorneys.

14.4 I attach hereto the correspondence as annexure "PF25".

14.5 Same effectively invites the respondent, with the assistance of her attorneys, to accept service of the summons.

14.6 This correspondence was sent on 03 March 2026.

14.7 Our impending divorce, having obviously been brought to the respondent's attention, seems to have acted as a further trigger event, causing her to increase her contemptuous attacks on our staff, and our business.

15.

15.1 On 4 March 2026, stock was required again by our entities to fulfil orders.

15.2 The office, upon my instruction, communicated the required stock list to Arthur/Oliver, who works at my, and the respondent's former common home, and manages our stock — to the extent that the respondent allows him to do so.

15.3 I attach hereto a screenshot thereof as annexure "PF26".

15.4 When I attended to the premises (20 River Road) and spoke to Arthur, to enquire about his progress, he advised me that the respondent refuses him access to the stock room.

15.5 Without the stock in question, we will be unable to fulfil any present orders, and the entities will be all but 'dead' in the next 2 weeks or so.

15.6 Other than the obvious reputational damage to our entities if they are unable to fulfil their orders (which will undoubtedly prevent future orders being made), and in placing the entities in breach of each such order to each such client, the non-fulfilment of the orders will require refunds to clientele, and will cripple the entities financially – not to mention the entities public perception, in that we will become known as suppliers that cannot supply orders.

15.7 If the respondent's conduct is not contrary to the present order of this Honourable Court, then I cannot surmise what would be deemed contravention thereof, with respect.

16.1 The respondent arrived at our former common home whilst I was with Arthur, and barred my entry to the stock room as well.

16.2 To avoid the respondent attacking me physically — she was so enraged and screamed at me about moneys due to her (which is untrue) to such an extent that I believed that she would in fact attack me physically — I had no option but to leave, which I did.

16.3 Upon my re-attendance on 05 March 2026, and under threat of this application, the respondent allowed me to remove minor amounts of stock, in her discretion – it remains ineffectual in addressing the stock shortages, stock taking, and present orders, however.

16.4 Our supply to our consumers can, respectfully, not be on a haphazard basis, and in the respondent's sole discretion.

16.5 The only manner in which our entities are able to obtain the stock will be through the intervention of this Honourable Court, or through the respondent being physically overpowered (I cannot proceed in terms of the latter, of course).

16.6 I am constrained, accordingly, to approach this Honourable Court for essential relief, as I now do.

16.7 The stock is required within the next few days in order to have the orders fulfilled – we have already advised some orders that the stock is on 'back order' in an attempt to buy a few days.

AD URGENCY

17.1 I say, with respect, that the respondent will only behave herself, in compliance with the Order issued by this Honourable Court on 19 August 2025, if she is visited with real consequences, which is the object of the Order I now seek against her.

PMF

17.2 I have now, with respect, no other remedy but to approach this Honourable Court for the relief I now seek in the notice of motion.

17.3 I regret having to do so, but I cannot do otherwise; I believe that the respondent will desist if she experiences real consequences, as sought in the notice of motion, 17.4 As aforesaid, the consequences for myself, the respondent, our son (we all derive our livelihoods from the entities in question), and our employees will be catastrophic; our entities do not have the reserves to allow their businesses to be compromised for weeks, and will unavoidably be damaged to the extent that they cannot recover therefrom if the respondent is not stopped, and urgently so, from continuing in her already prohibited conduct.

17.5 We are already running out of stock on certain products, and have to put them on back orders, which is very bad for our business. I cannot stress enough, with respect that the present situation must be corrected, and urgently so.

_AD_ NO SUBSTANTIAL REDRESS IN DUE COURSE

17.6 I say accordingly, with respect, that neither I, nor the respondent, nor our son, nor our entities, nor their employees will be able to obtain substantial redress in due course if an appropriate Order is not granted on an urgent basis.

Although such threat never seems to deter the respondent, I submit that punitive costs are warranted herein.

WHEREFORE, I PRAY, WITH RESPECT, FOR AN ORDER IN TERMS OF THE NOTICE OF MOTION

DATED AT BEDFORDVIEW ON 5th MARCH 2026

Dear Sir,

1. I refer to the above matter and to your attached correspondence.

2. At no stage did I instruct the Sheriff to not effect service. Such conduct would be highly irregular. The Deputy contacted me telephonically. I informed him that I acted for Mrs Faucitt, which he did not know. Quite frankly, I am unaware of how the Deputy obtained my number. The Deputy then requested assistance in order to effect service after advising me that he could not gain entry to the premises and that Mrs Faucitt did not answer her phone. I informed the Deputy that I would discuss the issue regarding service with my client and inform her accordingly.

3. From the phone call with the Deputy, I could gather that he was frustrated due to the unsuccessful attempts and I merely attempted to assist. This is on the basis that my professional view has always been to accept service of processes so that same can be dealt with – there is no point to avoid or delay service.

4. Notwithstanding the above, I can only offer further assistance and advise my client to collect the application from the office of the Sheriff. Should this be in order, please furnish me with the address and I undertake to inform my client accordingly and to attend tomorrow or Friday at the office of the Sheriff.

5. I await to hear from you.

Kind Regards,
Rudi Pottas

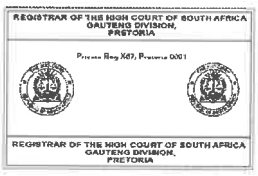
8.2.1 Transferred funds from the parties business entities, without just cause and to their detriment, from the entities;

8.2.2 Disrupted the management of the entities;

8.2.3 Caused financial loss to the entities;



8.3 The aforesaid conduct lead to the plaintiff being constrained to obtain an interim interdict as against the defendant, to prevent her involvement in the entities.

8.4 Such interdict was granted by this Honourable Court, under case number 2025-137857.

9.1 Having due regard to the circumstances that gave rise to the breakdown of the marriage, and the actions of the defendant, the defendant will be unduly benefitted and/or enriched, should the court not make an order in terms of Section 9(1) of the Act (No. 70 of 1979), that the defendant forfeit a portion of her claim or entitlement that she may have to the joint estate.

9.2 It would be just and equitable for this Honourable Court to order a forfeiture, as against the defendant, of 15% (Fifteen Percent) of the joint estate.

9.3 Having regard to the above, it will further be in the interests of justice that the defendant's debts be excluded from the calculation of the joint estate, should the plaintiff be unaware thereof, and that such calculation or distribution, if any, be adjusted in order to give effect to the exclusion of the defendant's debts therefrom.

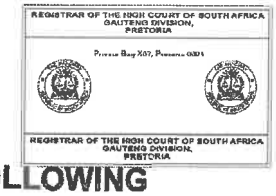
10.

10.1 The parties own various immovable properties and business entities.

10.2 The appointment of a receiver and liquidator would, accordingly, be just and equitable.

Costs are only sought in the event of opposition hereto, with such costs then being sought on the attorney client scale, with such costs to be excluded from the joint estate valuation, so as to carry the effect that such costs do not fall to the joint estate.



WHEREFORE THE PLAINTIFF PRAYS FOR AN ORDER IN THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

1. A decree of divorce;

2. An order that the defendant forfeit 15% of the benefit that would have accrued to her resultant of the parties being married in community of property, in terms of section 9 of the Divorce Act 10 of 1979;

Alternately

3. An order that the defendant forfeit a portion of her benefit that would have accrued to her, in so far as this Honourable Court orders, in terms of Section 9 of the Divorce Act 70 of 1979;

4. That a receiver and liquidator be appointed to attend to the necessary division of the estate, subject to the order made in terms of paragraphs 2 or 3 supra, along with any necessary redistributions therewith;

5. Costs on the scale as between attorney and client, to be on scale C, only if this action is defended alternately no order as to costs if the action is undefended;

3. Further and/or alternative relief.
