Dear Natan

I don't use Word or anything outside of coding so I did the content and i've been struggling for 24 hours to try and render the markdown into your original document with algorithmic processors.. If I spend any longer on the formatting there will be nothing so it seems we need someone who is able to help with formatting documents how you need them. I can generate markdown and convert to pdf & docx but to actually recover the original formatting requires using the actual word program.

Anyway the best I can do is send the docx versions I have with the AD headers. Please let me know if you can open this then I will format the others similarly and send.

Warm Regards
Dan

Dear Jacqui and Daniel,

We have sent our draft for consideration over a week ago. We have not received the draft back with comments and we are very concerned as this is getting further delayed.

Please urgently send the draft with comments and accompanying annexures as originally requested, along with the detailed note requested on the relevance of documents provided. We will not be in a position to assist unless this is sent.

Please treat this as urgent.

Kind regards,

NATAN BACK
